EVENING WORLD

Complete in Four Chapters, Beginning To-Day.

colorld.

"Wants" May Come, and "Wants" May Co, but WORLD "WANTS"

Co On Forever.

"WANTS" Printed This Year, Which Is About as Many as All the Other New York Papers Combined Contained.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Felon's Cell.

Victim to Hysteria.

Present to New York.

In the remarkable Witte case "The

It went to the rescue of the oppressed. It

Frederick Witte was about to be railreaded to prison. Circumstances had conspired against him. His accuser was most positive and emphatic in her charges and and his wrongdoing in the past. Striving to regain an honorable manhood, this false

Carefully'studying this extraordinary case, "The Evening World" saw the injustice and the impending disaster. It went promptly to the rescue. Despite all opposition it established a conclusive alibi in Wittels behalf. And he has been honorably discharged and a portion of the alleged stolen jewels found in the house of the

As a matter of simple justice Witte should be reinstated in the position from which he was discharged under this false accusation.

Other papers may howl and shrick in crazy headlines and disjointed abortive sen sations, but "The Evening World" is the journal that does things worth the doing, and its achievements are clean cut and

Its Christmas present to New York is the

THE EVENING WORLD from the first seerted the man's innocence, and on Saturday last, after a complete and exhaust ing search, secured a chain of evidence that, linked together, formed the strongest kind of an alibi. Still the man was held in jail. THE EVENING WORLD reporter, having at one time studied medicine, noticed the wonderful similarity in the case to that of the actions of a woman suffering from hys-

An interview with Mrs. Samuels and description of her appearance to leading physicians, fully proved that The Evening

World had solved the mystery. These views were printed in The Evening World of Monday, when no other paper even made and as is usual in these cases of hysteria, the woman herself putting it where her mother

The story of this remarkable case is substantially as follows: On Thursday afternoon Henry Samuels, jr., husband of Mrs. Sarah Samuels, reported at the Prince street station that his wife had been struck senseless in her apartments by two men and robbed of jewelry amounting to $28 in value.

Capt. Thompson questioned Mrs. Samuels, and she gave an accurate description of one of the robbers, notwithstanding the fact that she barely glanced at the map.

innocence.
Two adjournments were had in the case,

The result was apparent yesterday. Capt.

nervous woman, with a languid air, and wears continually a peculiar frightened look upon cup of tea.

Half an hour later Henry Samuels, her present husband, who then visited Miss Roberts constantly, came downstairs and accusation was an almost fatal blow.

Continued on Second Page.

gave Justice a vigorous belping hand. And note of its public policy.

Justice has triumphed.

THE BROTHER ON THE STAND. CANADA'S BLIZZARD INTO THE GIRLS' ALLEGATIONS.

SAVED FROM PRISON Mrs. Rames Gives Additional Testimony. Hamilton Endeavors to Give a Detailed Account of His Movements for Two Years... The Defense in the Eames Divorce Case Drawing Near a Close.

Frederick Witte's Escape from a There was a court-room full of spectator this morning at the Eames divorce case in Justice Bartlett's part of the Kings County Supreme Court anxious to hear the conclu-Mrs. Samuels, His Accuser, the Lawyers Sanders and Humphreys, and the Evening World's " Christmas

There were many well-dressed women in Evening World" has again struck the keypacked with listeners when Mrs. Eames was

She stated that prior to the beginning of identification. His recent good record availed not in the light of this testimony her husband's attempt to obtain a divorce there were two slits made in a panel by some one unknown to her.

Last Summer she discovered some one had jabbed" two little holes in the door, but her husband declared that he knew nothing about them.

about them.

"I wondered why our doors were tampered with," she went on, "and I looked through the holes. All I could see was the light from the bedroom window. After this suit was brought the holes were enlarged so that one might see what was going on in the badroom.

that one might see what was going on in the bedroom.

There was a ripple in court when George P. Hamilton was called to the stand. He is a tall, thin, freekled youth, with an attempt at a mustache. His hair is reddish brown, his eyes hazel and his manner subdued and embarrassed. He drummed nervously on the arm of the witness chair as he testified substantially as follows:

"I am twenty years old; was born March 30, 1883; am employed by W. E. Clark & Bro. provision dealers, at 164 Elizabeth street. New York; in October and November, 1886, I lived with my mother, next door to my sister, Mrs. Eames, in Bay Ridge, and was employed in New York. I brand as infamously false the story of Kitty Hoye that I committed adultery with my sister in 1886, or at any other time.

"I called at the house almost example." "Witte, you have fully established your in-nocence. You are honorably discharged. I am sorry you have lost your position." said Justice Ford to Frederick Witte in the Jefferson Market Police Court.

adultery with my sister in 1850, or as any time.

"I called at the house almost every morning for some weeks to get tea and toast, which she prepared for my mother, who was an invalid. Thanksgiving Day I left for South Carolina and did not return till Decoration Day, 1887.

"On July 4, 1887, when Anna Scriven teations that I committed adultery with my sis-

Day, 1887.

"On July 4, 1887, when Anna Scriven testifies that I committed adultery with my sister. It was all day at Fort Hamilton aiding Mr. Coe in taking tin-types

"I got back to Bay Ridge at 8,30 in the evening. My sister was absent, and I sat on the front stoop with Anna Scriven till my sister came. I asked her to let me take her little boy to see the fireworks at the beach. She said it was too late, and I went home perhaps ten minutes after my sister arrived.

"Next morning I went to work for Clayton & Co., in New York, replying to their advertisement for a cashier, and remained in their their employ till last mouth. I did not call on my sister during those months two or three times a week sastated by Annie Scriven. Did not go there more than once in two months except, perhaps, on Sundays."

In fine, young Hamilton retraced his movements for the two years over which Eames's charges against him extended, and whenever a specified act of infidelity of his sister with him was brought up the youth winced pain.

mention of the case.

Yesterday's events in court were corroboration in detail. Or, Hammond said that the jewelry was probably hidden at 193 Houston street by Mrs. Samuels herself. It was so, a specified act of infidelity of his sister with him was brought up the youth winced pain-fully, his face alternately paling and flush-> and made value florts to trip the witness.

>
> The first knowledge George Hamilton said he had of the suit for divorce was when he read a newspaper item stating that a Court had heard the case and that he was his woman herself putting it where her mother could find it.

The physician also said that Mrs. Samuels would probably stick to her story in the face of convincing proofs, and when seen last night she was as positive as ever.

It was The Evening World reporter who discovered that Mrs. Samuels did not have a bruise or discoloration on her face from the effects of the alleged blow which stretched her senseless on the floor for nearly an hour.

There is not a particle of doubt but that Mrs. Samuels, to carry out her strange plan, would have remained stretched on the floor for hours until she could be discovered.

In the face of all these convincing facts the police still clung to Witte with a forlorn hope that something might turn up to justify them in their arrest.

The story of this remarkable case is substantially as follows: On Thursday afternoon had heard the case and that he was his sister's co-respondent.

A number of transactions between Eames and young Hamilton, tending to show that the utmost friendliness existed between them, were brought out by Mr. Humphreys in redirect examination, and then Justice Bartlett asked and received specific denial of each charge in the complaint and each act pamed by the spring carrent side.

SUFFICIENT FOR THE DAY.

Manager Hill Hasn't Got Miss Mather from Gilmore This Season.

all disturbed this morning at the decision rendered by Judge Andrews, of the Supreme Court, to the effect that Manager Hill's request for an injunction, restraining Miss Mather from appearing under any other management than his ot the robbers, notwithstanding the fact that she barely glanced at the man.

Capt, Thompson and his detectives, Saver-cool and O'Brien, went back to the station. They talked over the case. Suddenly O'Brien said: "I saw Fred Witte at a dance last night."

Then they all agreed that Witte must be the man who did the robbing. A photograph was obtained and Mrs. Samuels immediately identified it. In all probability had the pho-tograph of any other man been presented the tograph of any other man been presented the identification would have been the same.

Witte was arrested, thrown into jail and kept there, despite the fact of The Evening World's alibi and Witte's protestations of innocence. "Then you really don't cate above." This next season?" I did not say that," guoth Gilmore. "This appeal is not mine. It is Mr. Hill's. But I think, "significantly," that I can go on making contracts for Miss Mather, and—well. I am not at all disturbed."

Mr. Gilmore rarely is. Two adjournments were and in the control but it was not until The Evening World stated that Mrs. Samuels was a victim of hysteria that the real truth began to dawn upon the officials.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
BOSTON, Dec. 19.—For some time past a crowd continually a peculiar frightened look upon her face.

Her carly history, before her marriage with Samuels, is related by Miss Lizzle Arnold, the proprietoress of the Arnold House, at 75 East Fenth street.

She says that on the 4th of April a young woman, giving her name as Sarah Roberts, stopped at her hotel and asked for a room, saying that she had trouble with her family and they had driven her out. She was assigned to room 26, on the second floor.

Two nights afterwards she asked to have one of the girls buy her a nightgown. Mrs. Arnold pitied the girl and loaned her one of her own. The girl said she was sick, and she cup of tea.

Half an hour later Harry Samuel. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CHICAGO, Dec. 9. - A gang of desperate pickpeckets were working the West-Side street cars last night, and the conductors, it seems, were

Young & Smylle's Stick Licorice

GEORGE HAMILTON DENIES THE SERVANT

sion of the wife's defense.

sister and brothers of the white-faced defendant bore a more confident air to-day, while Eames, who watched his wife in the witnesschair between the spread fingers of the hand with which he shielded his eyes, seemed somewhat nervous.

the audience, prepared to listen to the nauscating testimony, and even the gallery was recalled to the stand this morning.

her husband's suit there was no crack in her bedroom-sitting-room door through which a view could be had of the inner room. But after the publication in the newspapers of each act named by the spying servant girls, Kitty Hoye and Annie Scriven.

Mr. Patterson cross-examined Hamilton

Manager E. G. Gilmore, of the Academy of Music and of Miss Margaret Mather, was not at pearing under any other management than his own, is entirely just.

"You see, said Mr. Gilmor, pleasantly, "the judge refuses to grant the injunction just now as it is in the middle of a season, and he thinks it would injure Miss Mather and not benefit Mr. Hill. So this season is all right, and Miss Mather will continue under our management.

"Then you really don't care about her for next season?"

A "Gang" of Young Toughs Captured.

of juveniles, ranging from thirteen to sixteen, have been a sources of great trouble to the police of the Hub. They were known as the "Tremont Court Gang." some of them have been arrested before on charges varying from stealing apples and oranges to breaking into and robbing houses. By the confession of James Gately, alias "Kelly," aged sixteen, the whole "gang" have been captured.

Chicago Pickpockets Getting Desperate.

their only prey.

On a West Madison street car a conductor was attacked by two men and a rough-and-tumble fight ensued, and by the united efforts of conductor and driver they were captured and turned over to the police. Another conductor was severely beaten, but escaped with his cash intact. Several other conductors had their pockets picked of small amounts, and one lost his watch and chain.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1888.

Six Farmers Probably Drowned Fearful Disaster at Hooksett, N. H., Anson's Men Beaten Again in the Near Montreal.

on an Ice Floe All Night.

Communication with Each Other.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] MONTREAL, Dec. 19 .- Monday afternoon six farmers started from Boucherville for this city with wagon-loads of produce. They had to cross the river on the ice in the height of the storm, and as nothing has been seen of them since their departure from the village, it is feared they broke through the ice and were drowned.

Two brothers, Hugh and Michael Walsh. who arrived exhausted at Carillon last evening, tell a terrible story of suffering. They were attempting to cross with a team on the ice to that place from Point Fortune. In the middle of the river the hurricane overtook them and the ice broke up. The team was swept away and they only escaped death by swept away and they only escaped death by imaping on a large ice floe.

The remainder of the night was spent in terrible agony, drifting on their frail support upon the tempest-tossed river.

At daylight the ice-floe grounded on a small island, and their sad plight being seen from the shore a boat was put off and they were rescued.

Reports of more serious loss of life and damage are expected when the telegraph is once more in working order.

A despatch from Quebec says that the storm, which has been raging there since Sunday, rose to a blizzard yesterday, when the wind and snow swept the almost deserted streets with blinding violence.

The thoroughfares are terribly drifted. All communication is cut off between town and country.

country.

Fermers from the surrounding districts here say that the roads are almost impassable, and fences and buildings have been blown down which will result in enormous damage. It was difficult for them to get even to their barns to care for their live stock.

HART BESTED O'LEARY.

The Negro Got a Chance in the Seventl Round and Put His Man to Sleep.

Dave O'Leary, the ex-amateur feather-weigh champion, and young Hart, the colored pugilist, of this city, fought seven desperate rounds in gentleman's private residence on Staten Island at an early hour this morning.

Thirty clubmen witnessed the mill, and much

Thirty clubmen witnessed the mill, and much money changed hands on the result.

From the first blow to the last the fight was bloody and wicked, and one of its kind has seldon been seen near this city.

Hart knocked his man out in the last round by a right hand swinger on the jaw, and O'Leary slept for fully five minutes.

O'Leary is twenty years of age, stands 5 feet 436 inches tall and weighed 128 pounds. He was rubbed down by Eddie Sweeney and Jack Barnable.

Hart is a broad-shouldered negro, twenty-four years of age, standing 5 feet 4 inches in height, and weighs 130 pounds. His gloves were laced by Jim Cross, (colored) and Jack Mullen. The men stepped to the centre at 1.40 a. M. wearing skin gloves, to battle to a finish for a stake of $400, and purse of $200.

O'Leary rushed right at his man, and both fighters punched one another all over the floor. Hart received a vicious cut on the forchead, just above the left eye.

In round two, the men banged and slugged

Hart received a victous cut on the forehead, just above the left eye.

In round two, the men banged and slugged cach other in a brutal style. Both were covered with blood from ugly gashes on their faces. Hart won first knockdown, but went down twice Hart won first knockdown, but went down twice himself.

For the next six rounds the men presented a horrible spectacle, with their bleeding heads and swollen eyes. Hart was very tricky although weak, and both were getting tired.

The last round opened with exchanges by both sides, and as they were so groggy it needed but a slight pinch to end it. The negro had a chance and he let go his left for the stomach and then his right on the law. O'Leary threw up his hands and went off in a doze.

Time 24m, 10s.

BLOODSHED IN OPEN COURT.

Ex-Alderman Kenney Floored With an Ink stand and by a Hostile Litigant.

Great excitement was occasioned in the Suoreme Court Chambers, Brooklyn, this morning by an assault upon ex-Alderman Kenney, of this city. His assailant and would-be slayer was city. His assailant and would-be slayer was Richard Clark, of 353 Jay street. Brooklyn. At the time of the assault an examination was being conduced in a suit brought by Louisa Hoey against Clark to have the alleged conveyance of some real estate recently left her by a deceased uncle set aside.

Ex-Alderman Kenney had an interest in the case, owing to his wife being related to the plaintiff, and sat at the table with the counsel and his wife's mother.

The examination was adjourned and Mrs. Clark commerced upbraiding Mrs. Hoey for having brought the suit. The examination was adjourned and Mrs. Clark commenced upbraiding Mrs. Hoey for having brought the suit.

As Kenney sat at the table his back was towards Clark. Jerard Stevens, the chief clerk, was sitting at a desk in front of him. Suddenly Clark sprang forward, seized one of the inkstands, which was filled with the fluid, and hurled it at Kenney.

The heavy glass bottle struck him on the head inflicting an ugly wound, from which the blood flowed freely. The ink flew all over Mr. Stevens and Lawyer O'Gorman, who were seated near by. So sudden was the assault that no one thought to intercept the assailant. As soon as the ex-citement subsided several officers started in pursuit. They had not arrested Clark up till noon. Kenney's injuries were dressed by a physician and he was escorted home by friends.

Guttenburg Entries for To-Morrow. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
NOBTH HUDSON DRIVING PARK, N. J., Dec. 19. NORTH HUBSON DRIVING PARK, N. J., Dec. 19.

Here are the entries for Thursday, Dec. 20:

First Race—Six and one-half furlongs; beaten horses; purse $200.—James A. H., 118. Tenthon, 118. Castelle, 118. Top Sawyer, 115. Joe Peterson, 115. Bluns, 115. General Control of the Peterson, 115. Bluns, 115. General Control of the Indianal Control of Here are the entries for Thursday, Dec. 20:

RIVER. ALL AMERICAS WIN, CUT THEIR HEADS OFF!

Terrible Experience of Two Men Eleven Men and a Bridge Precipitated Into the Merrimac.

Town and Country Cut Off from All Three of the Workmen Drowned and Eight Badly Injured.

> (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 19,-Three men were drowned and eight taken from the Merrimac River in a badly injured condition this forenoon, just north of Hooksett, on the Suncook Branch of the Concord Railroad,

At Hooksett three wooden bridges span the river, and all of them have recently been undergoing repairs.

The high water and ice have made it necessary to brace them with heavy timbers.

While a gang was working on the middle bridge this morning it suddenly began to

A minute afterwards it toppled over and carried eleven men over the falls into the water.

The three drowned men lived at Suncook.

The injured will be brought to this city in a special train.

HOW ABOUT THESE GLOVES?

The City Paid for Mayor Hewitt's at Alderman Corcoran's Funeral. Mayor Hewitt's veto of the resolution to $616, expenses incurred at the funeral of the late George H. Forster, President of the Board of Aldermen, was the subject of discussion among the Aldermen at the City Hall this morn-among the Aldermen at the City Hall this morning.

Several of them recalled the fact that Mayor Hewitt went into the room of the Clerk of the Board a year ago and selected a pair of black kid gloves which he wore on the occasion of Alderman Corcoran's funeral. None of them remembered his returning them.

He vetoed the resolution to pay the expenses incurred at Alderman Corcoran's funeral, although he helped to swell them.

Vice-President Dowling said that the expenses were large because not only the Aldermen but the heads of departments were provided for.

All of the Aldermen united in saying that the resolution will be passed despite the veto.

THIEVES AND THEIR FOLLY.

H. W. Lucey's Stelen Goods Offered to His Stepdaughter for Sale.

William Sheldon and William Allen were ar aigned in Jefferson Market Court to-day for the obbery of the residence of Harry W. Lacey, of Turf, Field and Farm, at Larchmont, on the Sound.

Sound.

Sheldon, as was testified in court, sought employment from Mr. Lacey last Thursday and was engaged. The afternoon of the same day he disappeared and with him three dogs worth $300, $45 in money and asilver medal.

Allen offered the medal for sale yesterday to Mrs. Mason, of 89 Clinton place, being ignorant at the time that the lady was a stepdaughter of Mr. Lacey. She recognized the medal and notified the police. Both prisoners were turned over to the authorities of Westchester County.

Larios Gets Back His Gems

Collector Magone gave an order this morning that Senor Larios receive back his diamonds. which were seized as smuggled goods when he which were seized as smaggied goods when he arrived on the Etruria. Larios substantiated his statement that he was merely passing through the United States on his way to his home in Niearagua, and that the lewels were a wedding present to his fiancee, Signora Mercedes. He took the gems and went on his way rejoicing.

Miss Talbert Fails to Identify Clark.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] GLENS FALLS, N.Y., Dec. 19. -An earthquake shock was distinctly felt here this forenoon.

The Quotations.

00 8 60 12 60 10 6 American Cotton Oil. Atlantic & Pacific. Atch. Topeka & Santa Fe. Canada Southern. Chicago Gas Truct. Chic. Burl. & Quincy. Chicago & Northwest. hicago & Northwest hicago, Mil. & St. Paul. hicago, Mil. & St. Paul pfd., hicago, Rock Island & Pacific, hicago & Eastern Illinois pfd. in. Wash. & B. pfd. ameron Coal ol. & Hocking Valley clorade Coal & Iron... onsolidated Gas. elaware, Lackswanna & Western elaware & Hudson set Tenn., Va. & Ga. 2d. pfd. ake Shore. onisville & Nashville.

New York Markets.

New York Markets.

Wheat.—May opened %c. below last night's closing quotation at $1.11%, declined to $1.11. and before noon recovered to $1.11%. Dec. opened at $1.04%; Jan., $1.05%; Feb., $1.00; March, $1.08%. Market dull. Chicago steady. Liverpool quiet but steady.

Liverpool quiet but steady.

COTTON.—Futures opened steady at a decline of from 1 to 2 points. Dec., $0.44; Jau., $0.50; Feb., $0.63; March, $9.75; April, $9.87; May, $0.57; June, $10.07; Juny, $10.41; Aug., $10.20. Liverpool dull.

COFFEE—Opened firm. December 20 points up at 14.75. September 60 points up at 15.30. Other months advanced 35 to 55 points as follows: Jan., $14.85; Feb., $14.90; March and April, $15; May, $15.95; June, $15.10; July and Aug., $15.15; Oct., $15.30; Nov., $15.35. Hamburg quiet. Havre firm.

Petralleum.—Certificates opened unchanged at $156., advanced to $256c., and shortly before noon were quoted at $256c. Market about steady.

Few things are more wonderful than the instinct that guides the brute in the choice of its food and medleine. In India the mongoose, when bitten by the deadly cobra, is said to seek among the grass for some unknown herb or substance which it awallows and is thereby enabled to counteract the effect of the poison. Man, when his system is deranged by the accumulated poisons angendered by constipation or a singuish habit of body, should seek relief in Dr. Pirkur's Pirkur's which will at once entablish a permanently healthy action of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Antipodes.

Another Big Crowd Witnesses the Game at Sydney, N. S. W.

the Windy City Men-

Copyright, 1888, by the Press Publishing Company (New York World)

[SPECIAL CABLE DESPATCH TO THE WORLD,] SYDNEY, N. S. W., Dec. 19,-The second game of baseball here between the Chicago and All-America teams was played to-day in the presence of a big crowd. The All-Americas were again victorious by score of 6 to 3.

It is evident that the Australians have taken a fancy to our National game, for over 5,000 people witnessed the contest yesterday in which the All-Americas defeated the Chicagos 9 to 5.

So far Capt, Ward has had much the best of the games played.

VANDERBILT'S BIG LAND PURCHASE.

George H. Buys 2.100 Acres of Fine Moun tain Land Near Asheville, N. C.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 19. -Several months ago The Evening World announced that Mr. George H. Vanderbilt had purchased 1,000 acres of the best mountain land near Asheville, acres of the best mountain land near Asheville, N. C. It was currently reported in Asheville at the time of the purchase that his intention was to forund an industrial schoel for white children, but this Mr. Vanderbilt denied.

Messra, George H. and W. K. Vanderbilt have engaged rooms at an Asheville hotel for the month of March, and they have also engaged a landscape gardener to be in Asheville at that that time.

The Evenino World correspondent here instruced the following despatch from Asheville:

"A number of additional purchases of real estate in the suburbs have recently been made by the agent of Mr. George H. Vanderbilt."

One thousand acree was the extent of the first series of purchases. Now, in the last few days other tracts have been bought which aggregate more than 1,000 acres, thus making about two thousand one hundred acres, and the agent of Mr. Vanderbilt, Mr. Charles McNamee, of New York, still continues to purchase adjacent real cetate. Investigation of titles to lands are still going on, and other purchases of land will therefore be added shortly.

As to what Mr. Vanderbilt's plans are relative to his investment here it is impossible to find out. Nothing can be learned from any source as to the nature of the improvements contemplated.

Much carriosity is expressed on all sides as to as to the nature of the improvement plated. Much enriceity is expressed on all sides as to the object of the wealthy New Yorker's purchases here, and no little efforts has been made to get the coveted information, but all without avail. THE BADGERS UP TO PLEAD.

Meredith Says Not Guilty, but Addie Stanton Makes No Plea at All. The General Sessions Court, Part I., was besieged this morning by an eager crowd of people, who begged and demanded admittance its sacred precincts. The fact that the Daly badgers" were to be arraigned was the cause "badgers" were to be arraighted was the cause of all the turmoil.

When Clerk Hall called Edward Meredith. Addie Stanton and Ella Hammond to the bar there was a rustle and every neck was craned to catch a glimpee of the celebrated prisoners. Hermans, having already pleaded guilty, was been supposed.

not summoned.

Lawyer Purdy made a motion to be allowed to inspect the minutes of the Grand Jury, but as he could give no especial reason the Judge denied it. Let the defendants plead to the new indict-

Miss Elizabeth Talbert failed in the Yorkville Court to-day to identify Janitor Brewster Clark as her assailant, but he was held on the other charge of indecently assaulting Hannah Sullivan, a servant.

Glens Falls Shaken by an Earthquake. Z mand a separate trial. The defendant Stanton remains mute."

"Let the plea of not guilty be entered against all three, "said the Judge, and he then asked whether the defense was ready to go on.

District-Attorney Fitzgerald replied that he was ready to go on to-day, and that Meredith was to be tried first. Mr. Purdy said that he was ready, but would rather go on to-morrow.

"To-morrow will suit me," replied the District-Attorney, and the Judge fixed the day. The prisoners were taken back to the Tombs.

WARNER SMILES BLANDLY.

He Won't Say Anything About James G.

and the New Cabinet. Ex-Senator Warner Miller has just returned to the Fifth Avenue Hotel after a brief visit to Washington. All questions relating to his trip are met with evasive replies, the ex-Senator showing a decided preference to maintain

When asked by an Evening Woald reporter When asked by an Evenind World reporter his opinion of the scheme for splitting the Solid South, as submitted by a party of capitalists to Gen. Harrison yesterday, the ex-Senator replied that he had not yet read the account, but that the part relating to the appointment of reputable liepublicans to office would undoubtedly be followed by the President-elect.

Do you think James G. Blaine will be the Secretary of State? inquired the reporter, A smile that may be described as "child-like and bland" covered the ex-Senator's face, and after regarding the reporter in silence for a few moments, he walked silently away.

WILL HE CALL OUT THE MILITIA?

Gov. Wilson, It Is Said, Will Issue Certifieates to Democratic Congressmen.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] WHERLING, W. Va., Dec. 10,-It is rumored here that Gov. Wilson has decided to call out the militia to support his contemplated action giving certificates to four Democratic Congress-men. It is claimed this action would give the Democrats a majority in the House. Two Re-publicans are elected on the face of the returns. Mr. Haggin May Buy Proctor Knott.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

Louisville, Dec. 19. Negotiations are pendng looking to the sale of Proctor Knots, the faous race horse, to Ben Ali Haggin. Sunday, Sam Bryant, owner of Knott, received a tele sain Bryant, owner of Khott, received a tele-gram from Burns, Mr. Haggin's trainer, offering $25,000 for the horse. Bryant replied that $30,000 was Khott's price. Burns answered to this that a representative of Haggin would start for Kentucky at ence to see Khott. The horse is at his stable here in the pink of condition, and, it is conceded, has the Kentucky Derby at his mercy.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] BALTIMORE, Dec. 19, -Charles F. Mayer was o-day elected President of the B. and O. road in place of Samuel Spenger. This puts the road under the control of the Garrett interest.

Garrett Interests Control the B. and O.

Boston Has a Henry George Paper. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
BOSTON, Dec. 19.—A new weekly paper called The Hub has been started here. Editorially it will support the doctrines of Henry George.

Zanzibar's Sultan Putting Natives to Death.

An Outburst of Fanaticism Creates Great Consternation.

Lives Are to Be Sacrificed Every Day Capt. Ward Helding His Own Against For a Week.

> [BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] London, Dec. 19. - A despatch from Zanzi bar says the Sultan has signalized his return by a remarkable outburst of fanaticism which bodes no good for the peace and safety of his subjects and the security of European residents. Yesterday morning, he ordered the instant beheading of four natives who were charged with murder, but had had no trial. The sentence was carried out in the public street of the capital with clums; brutality, and the bodies were suffered to 1's weltering and the bodies were suffered to 1's weltering in their gore until evening.

The Sultan proposes to repeat this revolting spectac'e every day for a week, there being twenty-four men and one woman under sentence of death.

He announces that he will be guided in future by the Mabometan law. What a change this makes may be judged from the fact that capital punishment has been unknown in the island of Zanz-bar for twenty-five years.

The butcheries of yesterday and the threat of the others to follow have caused a dread-of the others to follow have caused a dread-ful sensation. The whites are shocked and the blacks terrified.

Col. Ewan Smith, the British political sgent and Consul-General, has waited upon the Sultan and remonstrated against these cruel-Sultan and remonstrated against these crueities.

Joint action will probably be taken by the Britah, German and other representatives of European powers to prevent their recurrence.

LIFE OFF THE STAGE WAS IRKSOME. An Actress on Trial for Poisoning Her Husband in Iowa. (SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) CLARION, Iowa, Dec. 19.—Bertha Diggle, the ctress, was apparently the least interested per on in the court-room yesterday when she was put into the prisoner's dock to be tried for the mur der of her husband. She listened to the reading of the indictment with an indifferent smile and said she was not guilty in a tone of quiet confi

Since her husband's death she has been a clos prisoner in the Wright County jail. She is prisoner in the Wright County iail. She is young and has been handsome. William Diggle, the man she is accused of murdering, was her fourth husband. One of his predecessors was a dime museum freak. She was married to Diggle four years ago in Chicago, and went to live with him at Sioux Falls, Dak. Life there was too irksome for her and she returned to the stage. Her husband followed her with letters and sometimes in person begging her to return to her home.

and sometimes in person begging her to be thome.

Last May the company she was with was billed to appear in Clarion, and Diggle came here to meet his wife. They quarrelled all night at the theatre and at the hotel, and finally Mrs. Diggle protaised to leave the company at the end of the week. Immediately after this Mrs. Diggle bought 50 cents worth of morphine. At the diner table she gave her husband some bottled beer, and he died in half an hour. A doctor pronounced his death due to morphine poisoning.

ing.

Mrs. Diggle is defended by good lawyers. Her ples will be that her husband took the poison by

THE CRISIS AT HAYTI.

apt. Kelly Makes His Report of the Cape Haytien Bombardment. Capt. Robert Kelly, of the Clyde steamer Sagnaw, reported at the office of the company, 35

Broadway, this morning, confirming the story of the bombardment of Cape Havtien. On Dec. 3, he said, while in the harbor of Cape Haytien, the head centre of the rebels, three Haytian men-of-war from Portsau-Prince attempted to shell the town, and the inhabitants fied to the mountains with all their effects, though the bombarding parties could not reach the town with their shell and dared not one the town with their shell and dared not inter the harbor.

On Dec. 6 the bombardment was renewed, but ben, Papillon had prepared for it and when two hells from his guns had been dropped a few ods from the Legitime fleet the latter turned all and renewes to see shells from his guns had been dropped a few rods from the Legitime fleet the latter turned tail and ran away to sea.

The Saginaw brought from Hayti Capt. M. H. Greeno and family of the English brig Brady, which was wrecked in a gale off the island Oct. 28. Capt. Greeno says the natives demanded at the muzzles of their guns all the possessions of himself and crew, but were mollified and gave them a day in which to decide between being robbed alive or dead.

Acting Consul Singleton, of Hayti, stated today that he had received no official information from Hayti in regard to the departure of the Haytian Republic. He is anxiously awaiting official despatches from Gen. Legitime.

The Saginaw is new lying at the Congress street stores, Brooklyn.

TRIED TO ROB GOV. GREEN.

Three Shots at the Thieves Frighten Them

Away from His House. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] FLUZABETH, N. J., Dec. 19. -Burglars tried to ob the residence of Gov. Green at Elizabeth last night. They broke open a rear window, but in trying to crawl through set off the burgiar alarm, which awakened the Governor, who, scizing his revolver, fired three shots at the He thinks he hit one of them, but they all man-ged to escape. The police are working on a clue. Gen. Alger's Visit to Mr. Blaine. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

BOSTON, Dec. 19.—Gen. Russell A. Alger, of Michigan, left here for New York yesterday. Joseph Mauley and family accompanied him from Augusta here. The impression is general that he bore an effer of the State portfolio from Gen. Harrison to Mr. Blains.

Fair and Colder Weather. Wather indications:

York -Fair, preceded by light anoun; stightly colder: northwesterly winds.

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer: 3 & M. ... 35 No. ... 1888 1887 34 M. ... 33 35 No. ... 34 36 12 M. ... 33 37 38 Average for the past twenty-four hours, 37 1-6 degrees.

THE PENALTY.

Doremus Hanged To-Day for the Murder of His Son.

Writing Poetry Before Going Out to the Gallows.

Slipped from Its Place.

Somebody Bungled and the Noose

Brutal Crime. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] HACKENSACK, N. J., Dec. 19 .- John Myers Doremus expiated the crime of murder

An Account of the Murderer and His his son, on the gallows in the Bergen County Jail here this forenoon. The rope which held up the 600-pound weight was cut at 10.41 A. M. precisely. The murderer was jerked up like a flash. Through some bungling the knot of the noose slipped round to the back of his head instead of remaining under the ear, as it would have done had it been properly adjusted, and his death was a most horrible one.

The arms and legs twitched convulsively, the body squirmed and twisted in a pitiful way.

The witnesses turned pale, and many of them closed their eyes to shut out the awful He was pronounced dead in fifteen minutes y Doctors Burdett and Banks, the County physicians, correct time.

Death was caused by strangulation.
Doremus spent the time until 10 a. M. in prayer. Then Sheriff Demarest and two deputies and the hangman entered his where the death warrant was read. This oc-cupied half an hour. He bore up very well and walked with a tirm step to the scaffold. The Sheriff went first, then his deputies, then the prisoner between the two clergymen and the hangman, Joe Stagg, brought up the

The accommodations for the press were very poor, and as a result of the inadequate arrangements several of the news associations sent out at first au inaccurate statement as to the time of the falling of the drop.

England's New Jersey News Agency, as well as others, was misied as to the hour of execution, and every newspaper office in New York was served with the inaccurate time. The Evening World promptly corrected the announcement as to the falling of the drop. 10.41 a. m. was the correct time.

PREPARING FOR THE END.

How Doremus Passed the Early Morning

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

HACKENSACK, N. J., Dec. 19.—Dorewus awake at 5 o'clock this morning. He had not slept well. Altogether he did not get more than two hours solid sleep during the night. He tossed and tumbled about the night. He tossed and tumbled about and muttered to himself. It seemed as if he were living over again his past life.

When he awoke he turned on his back, rubbed his hands across his eyes and said:

"What time is it?"

"Just 5 o'clock," replied Garrett Brinckerhoff, one of the death-watch,

"Plenty of time," he commented.

He lay for a few minutes gazing up at the ceiling, then he sprang out of bed.

WINCES ON SEEING HIS HANGING SUIT.

Which on shelp a new suit of black broad-cloth had been left on a chair beside his bed in place of his old prison uniform. Upon seeing the suit he winced perceptibly.

"Don't mind that," said Nicholas Dema-rest, another of the death-watch.

"I don't, but it is hard. If I allowed myself to think of what was coming I would o crazy," he returned.

A bath-tub was brought into his cell and e bathed himself in the cool water for some me. Then he dressed himself slowly and carefully. George Gress went in and shaved him.

It was after 7 o'clock when he was finally and fully attired for death.

'I am glad that is over," he said, when the last article of clothing was adjusted.

Sheriff Demarest entered his cell and asked him how he felt.

"First rate."

Are you hungry?" asked the Sheriff, No appetite at all."
You must take something. What will

"Oh, give me a raw egg in a cup of coffee and a piece of bread," he answered, wincing HIS LAST MEAL. When it was brought to him he muttered: "My last meal."
He disposed of it hastily, then called for pans, ink and paper. He spent quite some

Continued on Third Page,